

Unwanted solicitations are an invsion of privacy. If I want a credit card or want to change banks or request additional services, I will seek out the vendor. Other unwanted advertising can be turned off...if I do not want to be solicited by my TV, I turn it off...if I do not want unsolicited magazine subscriptions, I call and cancel them. Please do not change the Indiana telephone privacy laws.